WHY DID LEVIEV JOIN TINDER?

Simon had a really tough childhood. His dad left him when he was just 10. Then, his mom married another guy, and he treated Simon badly. So, Simon ran away from home. He did odd jobs as a kid, but the money wasn't enough. So, he got into doing some bad stuff, like stealing and using other people's credit cards. Simon turned into a total trickster. When he was about 20, he started using Tinder, a phone app. At first, he just wanted to meet new people. But after a while, he decided to trick people by using their weaknesses and making money from it. This is how Simon Leviev got into Tinder.

As time went on, Simon's tricks got even worse. He learned how to lie and cheat online, stealing people's identities and tricking them out of their money. Even though it was risky, Simon felt like this was the only way he could control things in his messed-up life. His sneaky schemes hurt a lot of people along the way.

On Tinder, Simon pretended to be someone he wasn't, fooling people with fake stories and playing with their feelings. Behind the nice guy act, though, was a troubled person who couldn't escape his tough past. Simon Leviev went from being a kid who had a rough time to a person doing bad things, leaving a bunch of people with stories they'd rather forget."

SIMON'S HARD SCHOOL YEARS

Once upon a time, there lived a young boy named Simon. He had a bright smile, a contagious laugh, and a heart full of kindness. Sadly, Simon's life was burdened with the heavy weight of bullying at school. Every day, when Simon walked through the school gates, he faced taunt, jeers, and hurtful comments from his classmates. Whether it was about his appearance, his academic achievements, or his hobbies, the bullies seemed determined to tear him down.

This kind of bullying makes people feel like taking revenge from bullies. Simon was planning to take revenge from bullies in a different way. He did a plan with his friends and the plan's main topic was swindle the bullies. The journey of swindle started there. His plan was to take their money by lies and use that money for threatening. When he did that plan it actually worked because bullies were scared of Simon and stop bullying him. That's why he used to get things done this way. Simon's journey was rough because of his difficult past.

CECILIA'S LOVE FOR TINDER

Life that turned from tinder addict to activist Cecilia, once ensnared by the Tinder Swindler's deceit, has transformed into a symbol of resilience. Post-Simon, she's rebuilding her life with determination, shedding the digital illusions of love. Now an advocate for online safety, Cecilia shares her story as a cautionary tale, using her experience to empower others. Her journey serves as a beacon of hope, emphasizing the importance of recognizing red flags in the unpredictable world of dating apps.

Although Cecilia, who went to about 2000 tinder meetings in a year, is now a symbol of power, we can develop a theory about why she was once addicted to tinder. It could be the thrill of the unknown or the chance of something special in every swipe. In this online world, Cecilia's love for Tinder is more than just a routine; it's a search for connection, a journey through the mysterious paths of modern love, where each swipe opens a new chapter in her evolving story.

SIMON'S DIRTY PAST

As you can see, Simon is a really qualified fraudster. How he did start cheating someone. Actually, this habit came from his childhood's habit. He started cheating someone in primary school. He was deceiving his teachers because he didn't do his homework with creating qualified scenarios. He created scenarios instead of doing homework. Additionally, he started cheating his friends. He was deceiving his friends by marketing those bad pens as if they were high quality pens.

After that, school administration realized that and they punished him. However, he didn't stop cheating someone because he earned money and had fun while he were cheating. In the Period of highschool, he started deceiving middle aged man by creating fake girl's social media accounts for him luxury needs. Therefore, we can easily inferred that fraud is like an art form for this man.
